Note: LeanMachine will be closing soon.

When this happens, much of the information on this web site will go, and no more orders will be able to be placed online. Basic information will remain on this site for some time to assist those unsure about benefits and warnings for each product.

LeanMachine has been able to help many people over many years, but the time and resources taken to provide this service leaves nothing for anything else. At age 71, although stronger, healthier and fitter than at 21, there are so many projects still to do and so little time. I thank our loyal customers.

Prices always in Australian Dollars and subject to change at any time.

We order from USA suppliers almost daily, but this will stop soon as we get close to the shut-down date.

We endeavour to express post all orders the same or next business day, flat rate $12 (Free for orders over $200).

Health and Nutrition advice is always free and without obligation, but should be used in conjunction with personal advice from your Doctor, Dietician or Naturopath.

LeanMachine is a non-profit business dedicated to people regaining or improving their health.

All products are individually selected for benefit, ingredients, value.
